

REPUBLICAN PARTY COMMITTEES

STRUCTURE & PURPOSES

THREE COMMITTEE LEVELS

According to the Michigan Campaign Finance Act, there are three categories of Political Party Committees registered in Michigan.

- State Central Committee (authorized by the National Committee)
- Congressional District Committees (authorized by the State Central Committee)
- County Executive Committees (authorized by the State Central Committee)

Each Political Party Committee is required to file campaign finance statements with Michigan's Bureau of Elections - each has a separate bank account and a Treasurer.

COMMITTEE BYLAWS

Each Political Party Committee should adopt its own set of bylaws. These are the committee's basic rules relating to itself.

Bylaws (a) describe the group's purpose, (b) spell out the qualifications and method of selection of members, (c) provide for officers, committees and meetings (including the quorum), (d) may set up an executive board or board of directors and (e) designate the parliamentary authority.

Bylaws include provisions for their own amendment that require previous notice of proposed amendments and at least a two-thirds vote for them to be adopted. When adopting or amending bylaws, and to view sample bylaws, consult Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, Chapter XVIII.

COMMITTEE RULES OF ORDER

The regulation of the conduct of business in meetings is the function of rules of order, which are found in the parliamentary authority designated in the bylaws and in any special rules of order adopted by the committee.

Most, if not all, Political Party Committees in Michigan use Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised as their parliamentary authority.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

VS.

COUNTY PARTY COMMITTEE

The County Executive Committee is the official Political Party Committee for the county as authorized by the State Central Committee to the Michigan Bureau of Elections. This committee is subject to the Michigan Campaign Finance Act and has its own bylaws and rules of order. Learn more about the election of a County Executive Committee in the County Conventions Course at moveitchristian.com.

MCL 168.599, Section 4: "...within 45 days after January 1 of each odd numbered year, the executive committee shall select a county committee for the party, which committee shall consist of not less than 2 members from each township and 2 members from each ward of each city in the county, or shall consist of at least 2 members from each election precinct in the county, as the executive committee may determine. The committee shall have the right to appoint officers which in its judgment are proper to carry out the purposes of the committee, and shall have power to fill a vacancy which may occur in the membership of the committee or in any of its offices. Between meetings of the county committee the executive committee shall have all of the powers and perform all of the duties of the county committee, including the filling of vacancies in nominations as prescribed by law. The term of service of a county committee shall continue for 2 years and until the selection of its successor." (Note that the Michigan Republican Party Bylaws amended February 8, 2020 describe the County Party Committee as optional and do not specify membership.)
